Abstract. The abstract should be typed in single-spaced in 10-points Times New Roman and not be more than 200 words. The abstract should not only indicate the subject and scope of the paper but also summarize the author's conclusion. Structured abstract must be a brief, comprehensive summary of the contents of the article. It allows readers to survey the contents of an article quickly. An abstract summarizes the major aspects of a paper. It should succinctly summarize the purpose of the paper, the methods used, the major results, and conclusions (Times New Roman 10).

Keywords: Keyword 1, Keyword 2, Keyword 3 (Min 3 Keywords & Max 5 Keywords) (Times New Roman 9).

1 INTRODUCTION (Times New Roman 12)

In this section, author should address the following information, which is background, problems and objectives of the research. Please insert here a very short Introduction (Times New Roman 11). Please note that the first paragraph is not indented. The first paragraph that follows a table, figure, equation etc. does not have an indent, either.

Subsequent paragraphs, however, are indented (here insert the second paragraph).

2 METHODOLOGY (Times New Roman 12)

Please insert here the Second Section (Times New Roman 11). Please note that the first paragraph is not indented. The first paragraph that follows a table, figure, equation etc. does not have an indent, either. In this section, author should concisely describe and justify the research design choices including methodological approach and limitations, sampling selection, materials, tools and instruments, data collection and analysis methods.

Subsequent paragraphs, however, are indented (here insert the second paragraph).

3 RESULTS AND DISCUSSION (Times New Roman 12)

In this section, author should address the following information, which is finding and discussion. Please insert here the Third Section (Times New Roman 11). Please note that the first paragraph of a section or subsection is not indented. The first paragraphs that follows a table, figure, equation etc. does not have an indent, either.

Subsequent paragraphs, however, are indented (here insert the second paragraph). Please see below how to insert Table 1 and Fig. 1 in the text.

Table 1. Table captions should be placed above the tables (Times New Roman 10).

Displayed equations are centered and set on a separate line.

$$x + y = z \tag{1}$$

Please try to avoid rasterized images for line-art diagrams and schemas. Whenever possible, use vector graphics instead (see Fig. 1).

Fig. 1. A figure caption is always placed below the illustration. Short captions are centered, while long ones are justified. The macro button chooses the correct format automatically (Times New Roman 10).

4 CONCLUSION

Please insert here the Fifth Section (Times New Roman 11). The conclusion is intended to help the reader understand why your research should matter to them after they have finished reading the paper. A conclusion is not merely a summary of the main topics covered or a re-statement of your research problem but a synthesis of key points and, if applicable, where you recommend new areas for future research.

Subsequent paragraphs, however, are indented (here insert the second paragraph).
